GOODS & SERVICES AUCTION CATALOG

NOVEMBER 7, 2026

UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST FELLOWSHIP

AT STONY BROOK

This Catalog Is Your Live Auction Paddle, So Please Remember to Bring It with You on Saturday Evening, November 7, 2026.

Admission is $30 per person, $55 per couple, children 12 and younger free, and entitles you to: a Bidding Number (one number per household) and a great meal: appetizers, drinks, dinner, dessert, and coffee.

This catalogue contains descriptions and item numbers for Live Auction and Silent Auction goods and services. All Silent Auction items will be displayed on tables near their bid sheets.

We encouraged you to review the items and plan your strategies ahead of time. Many of the large ticket items can be purchased by a group. Find other people you'd like to dine or vacation with, agree on a maximum bid, choose a single bidder, and go for it! The winning bid can be recorded only on the bidder's bill, with the members of the group settling up among themselves later. (The cashier's table will not split bids.) Good luck and have an enjoyable evening!

Auction Types and How They Work

You can compete for items and services in two ways:

Live Auction – Bid in real time against others by displaying your paddle during active bidding.

Silent Auction – Bid by clearly writing your name, paddle number and bid on the sheets posted on the walls. Carefully read the item's description about how to bid and keep checking back to see if you need to increase your bid! These sheets are already up in the sanctuary, and bidding has begun. Silent auction items are of three types:

YELLOW ~ Incremental Bid Auction Items, Single Winner
Only one bidder can win. Highest bid wins.

GREEN ~ Incremental Bid Auction Items, Multiple Winners
Multiple winners possible. When the maximum number of people have signed up at the "starting bid," additional bidders must sign up at the next price level (the same number of bidders can bid at that next price level). Price increments are indicated on the sign-up sheet. At the end of the auction, the winners will be picked as follows: Highest bidders win. If there are more slots than the number of highest bidders, then the first bidders at the next highest price fill the remaining slots.

Last in at the lower bid is the first out.

Example: Japanese dinner for 6. Starting bid: $50. Bid increments: $10
First 6 bidders bid $50 each. 4 more bidders bid $60 each.
The four $60 bidders will win, and the first two $50 bidders will win.

BLUE ~ Fixed Price Auction Items, Unlimited # of Winners

Notes:

If you are a couple, you must enter a separate bid for each person. In cases where one person in a couple wins and one loses, the losing partner may opt to buy in at the higher, winning price, if the donor is able to accommodate the additional person.

If you are outbid and choose to bid again at a higher bid price, please remember to cross off your old bids.

SILENT AUCTION ITEMS

ARTS & TREASURES

AT01 – Waterford Crystal Frame

AT02 - Life is a Dance

Watch your walls come to life with this beautiful pair of framed and mounted prints. Feel the motion of these graceful figures dancing in the softest shades of blue, brown, and cream, accented in striking black. Each is numbered and signed. (33”W x 26”H and 36”W x 27”H). Donated by Dave Bernstein. (Value $75). 1 winner, opening bid $25.

AT03 - Framed Watercolor

Still life flower watercolor. Original framed 12”x14” painting by UUFSB artist, Esterita Austin. 1 winner, opening bid $25.

AT04 - Victorian Lover's Eye

Popular from the late 1700s through the end of the nineteenth century were miniature watercolor paintings of an eye of one's lover during courtship that could be discreetly worn ("for your eyes only"). In the tradition of those treasured pieces, this vintage China saucer has been hand painted and donated by UUFSB artist, Esterita Austin. 1 winner, opening bid $25.

AT05 - Colorful Quilted Backpack

This backpack is handmade and donated by Esterita Austin and is of patchwork, upholstery fabrics in black, grays, gold, green, and dark pink. It’s 15“ x 15“ with multiple pockets for all your treasures. It has a draw string and button closure. 1 winner, opening bid $30.

AT06 - Yes, You Can Take It with You

Your important papers will be so much more impressive in this handmade leather briefcase in cognac (brown). It measures 17” long, 12” high and opens to 6” wide. This rarely used briefcase has three inside compartments and a metal clasp. Donated by Dave Bernstein. 1 winner, opening bid $25.

AT07 - Osprey Shelter

An osprey stands perched with wings outstretched in a wide, protective display beside its mate, sheltered inside a stick-built nest atop an elevated wooden platform against a vivid blue sky. Framed and matted photograph - framed size 20” high, 24” wide. Donated by Doris Diamond. 1 winner, opening bid $50.

AT08 - Autumn Spirals

An abstract composition featuring fluid, spiraling white linework layered over a rich, textured ground of mottled emerald greens, vivid turquoise, warm rust tones, and shimmering gold-leaf accents. Framed photograph on canvas with a thin black frame, 20” high, 16”wide. Donated by Doris Diamond. 1 winner, opening bid $50.

AT09 – Sheltered Wreck

This original felted wool "painting" captures the iconic, black-and-white striped Fire Island Lighthouse standing tall against a textured coastal sky. A warm, unique piece of coastal decor brings the serene beauty of the Atlantic shore into any room. Hand-crafted using barbed felting needles and made entirely of wool and other natural fiber, over a wet felted background. This tactile 2D/3D landscape brings LI's historic maritime landmark to life. Layers of hand-blended wool roving create a rich, blue sky; natural silk embellishes the light clouds. Delicate tufts of roving form the windswept dunes and beach grass below. In the foreground stands a 3-D replica of the 13’ wooden hull fragment from a historic shipwreck—believed to be from the 1821 wreck of the pioneering steam and sail vessel SS Savannah—which was uncovered in the dunes near the Fire Island Inlet and placed on display at the base. Donated by Deb Genetin Tate. 1 winner, opening bid $75.

AT10 – Dramatic Geometric Shawl

Make your outfit smile with this long, lightweight scarf or wear as a shawl. Its bold, multi-colored, geometric design really pops! Mix and match with outfits for all occasions! 60”x 20”. 100% polyester. Hand wash only. Donated by Carolyn Loofbourow. 1 winner, opening bid $15.

AT11 - Versatile Door Wreath

Handmade artificial eucalyptus wreath. Seasonless and easy to decorate up or down for the holidays. Charming on a door or a wall. 24 inches. Donated by Carolyn Loofbourow. 1 winner, opening bid $10.

AT12 - Luxuriously Long Pendant Necklace

All heads will turn when you enter the room wearing this stunning two-inch pendant, with an oblong teal stone surrounded by marcasite stones that also enhance the antique-silver clasp on its extra-long chain. Value $75. Donated by Deborah Gale. 1 winner, opening bid $10.

AT13 - Custom-made Wrist Warmers

Have you seen Pam Plate’s Wrist Warmers? These “pulse-warmers,” taught to her by her German-born grandmother, will keep your hands and torso warm in these upcoming cold days. They are also comforting. Wear them in bed, in a cold movie theater, at home reading or watching TV. Pam will custom-make a pair for four lucky winners. You choose the color, 100% wool or a blend. On Auction Night, check out the basket of samples to try different sizes and types of yarn and clarify details with Pam. She can't promise that all four pairs will be ready by the holidays. To be fair, she'll make them in the order of the highest bids and whoever confirms their specifications first. 4 winners, opening bid $15.

AT14 - Nahua Painting - Acrylics on Bark

Recently back from her adventures in Mexico, world traveler (and auction hauntress extraordinaire), Linda Kirk, is offering this brightly colored, unique work of art on "Papel Amate." Indigenous Otomi artisans in Pueblo and Guerrero boil, rinse, and pound tree bark on a stone tool called a "metlatl" to flattened it into thin, fibrous sheets, which are then used as canvases for traditional artwork by native painters using bright acrylic paints to depict daily village life. This exquisite 11" x 15" piece, with its brilliant colors, is presented in a matte black frame for easy hanging and to protect the delicate edges. 1 winner, opening bid $30.

AT15 – Succulent Garden Tray

Need some green this fall to hold you over until spring? This succulent garden tray donated by Kunz Greenhouse will help you do just that. Value: $45. Donated by Linda Kirk. 1 winner, opening bid $20.

AT16 - Frosty Fancies Basket

This basket contains several snowman-motif items including a ceramic cookie jar, potholder set, wine charms and wine, and more. It's ready for giving as a seasonal hostess gift or as a treat for yourself! Donated by Lee & John Morris. 1 winner, opening bid $25.

AT17 - Festive Presentations

This basket, donated by Lee & John Morris, features a 3-D Christmas tree-shaped cake mold and a large, decorative, glass lazy Susan for displaying your tree cake or other holiday goodies. See what other surprises it contains. It is ready for gift-giving or for treating yourself to some special holiday cheer! $55 value. 1 winner, opening bid $15.

AT18 - Two Gnomes and a Fun Guy

Gnome matter how many you have, it's a well gnome fact that it's worth the truffle to add a couple more, even if you don't have mushroom. Gnome one can resist this charming impish pair and their soporific pal. These three hand-knitted cuties were skillfully created by Gail Brown and have the perfect dose of whimsy to brighten your day. 1 winner, opening bid $20.

AT19 - Creek View

A pastel painting by Julie Doczi done "plein air" (on location) one afternoon this past summer behind the Reboli Gallery in Stony Brook. It is evocative of a very warm summer day filled with sunlight, flowing water, blue skies and lush plants. Framed by local Setauket framer Jonathan Busko in oak with a white matte, it measures 15"H x 18"W. 1 winner, opening bid $50.

AT20 - Gustav Klimt's Tree of Life

This large (40"x28") framed print symbolizes the complex, unending cycle of life, the interconnectedness of all living things, the earth, and the spiritual realm. True statement and conversation piece for your home. Donated by Lorraine Stidd. 1 winner, opening bid $35.

AT21 - Dainty Flower Vase

Delicate 10-inch etched crystal vase. Perfect way to showcase a single rose or small bouquet of wildflowers. Donated by Linda Volkerz. 1 winner, opening bid $10.

AT22 - Study in Nature Part I

The artist who created this innovative sculpture is the late brother-in-law of Julie Nittoli. A resident of Orient Point, he transformed items found at nearby beaches, like stones, driftwood and sea glass into these magnificent works of art. This V-shaped structure with glass disks stands 27”H x 9”W. One-of-a-kind original by Kenneth Nittoli. Donated by Julie Nittoli.
1 winner, opening bid $35.

AT23 - Study in Nature Part 2

Late artist Kenneth Nittoli of Orient Point created several nature inspired sculptures repurposing a variety of unusual objects collected at nearby beaches. This twisted triangular structure with sea glass and other found objects stands approximately 20”H x 14”W. Donated by Julie Nittoli. 1 winner, opening bid $35.

AT24 - Study in Nature Part 3

This oval-shaped piece filled with soft blue and green sea glass and accentuated with found objects from Orient Point beaches is a one-of-a-kind original created by the late artist, Kenneth Nittoli. Approximately 20”H x 14”W. Donated by Julie Nittoli. 1 winner, opening bid $35.

EVENTS

EV01 – Demo and Dine (100% Plant-Based)

Are you vegan-curious? Do you want to save the planet? Or maybe you just want ideas for what to serve your vegan daughter-in-law when she comes over?! Join Denise Stevenson, Maria Kata, and Jennifer Greene for a fun vegan cooking demo and delicious dinner in the sanctuary on April 17 , 2027at 4:00 p.m. Donated and run by Denise Stevenson, Maria Kata, and Jennifer Greene. Max. 8 winners, opening bid $20.

EV02 – Let's Read a Play

What could be more entertaining on a cold winter afternoon than getting together and reading aloud a play? Please join us on Sat., Jan. 16, 2027 from 1:00 p.m. to approx. 4:00 p.m. at the Nesconset home of Colleen Rudman. The play selected is The Exonerated by Jessica Blank and Erik Jensen. It tells the stories of six wrongfully convicted, former death row inmates and their paths to freedom. Very moving and timely play! We will read the first half, take a break for hearty snacks, and then finish up the play. Max. 12 winners, opening bid $20.

EV03 – That's Amore: Italian Feast with Gina and John

Bring your appetite and sense of humor! Join hosts Gina Talento and John Anello at Gina's home for a warm, lively evening of Italian food, music, a little vino, a fun Italian film, and good company. We will gather around the table for a homemade feast featuring long simmered tomato sauce with meatballs, sausage, and pork, served with pasta and all the comfort of a festive Italian family dinner. For our vegetarian guests, there will be homemade eggplant parmigiana. After dinner, settle in for dessert (leave the gun, take the cannoli), laughter, and a screening of the classic comedy My Cousin Vinny, because nothing follows a big Italian meal quite like Joe Pesci arguing his way through an Alabama courtroom. Come as guests, leave like famiglia. Max. 8 winners, opening bid $25.

EV04 – Chinese New Year Celebration Craft

Let’s celebrate the Chinese New Year together with creativity! Come join Wendy Engelhardt on Sat., Feb. 6 from 1:00 5:00 p.m., in the UUFSB sanctuary, to decorate bamboo and paper fans. Max. 25 winners, Fixed Price $25.

EV08 – Three Labyrinth Tour

Meet at Linda Mikell's house in Commack (3 Warbler Lane). We will proceed to St. Joseph's Convent in Brentwood and walk their garden labyrinth (classic). Then we will drive a few miles to the Brentwood campus of Suffolk Community College and walk their Chartres Labyrinth. Then we will proceed to Linda's home to walk her "mirror" labyrinth in her garden and have refreshments together. The date is April 24, 2027. Max. 10 winners, opening bid $25.

EV09 – Movie Night for Women

Susan Buckley and Linda Mikell invite women of all ages to come to their home (3 Warble Lane, Commack) on April 23, 2027 for a 7:00 p.m. showing of a movie they think you will LOVE. There will be chocolate and popcorn of ALL VARIETIES passed around. During the intermission we will have coffee and tea together with dessert. Max. 20 winners, opening bid $25.

EV10 – Personal House Tour and Tea of the Bayard Cutting Manor

UU Janet O'Keefe, as docent, will enthusiastically offer a relaxed private tour of Westbrook, the Gilded Age Manor House of the Bayard Cutting family, located in Great River. Along with the tour she will provide "Tea for Two," a Victorian Tea served in the library of the manor house. The Tea includes a pot of specialty tea of your choice as well as a tower of tea sandwiches and pastries. There are two winners, who may choose to go together on the same day or attend individually. The event includes the Tea ($65), private tour ($25), and parking. The total value of the donation is $98 apiece. You may wish to plan your outing in early spring, April or thereafter, when the weather starts getting lovely. Janet may also point out some features of the grounds. Plan for a mutually agreed upon time & date. Max. 2 winners, opening bid $35.

EV11 – O Sole Mio!

That's what you'll say as you dine with Laura and Joanne at O Sole Mio at this Dinners for 9. Joanne and Laura retired from home cooking a Pasta Dinner after last year; we would like to continue the tradition in a new way. This year we will host the highest 9 bidders at a full course Italian dinner at O Sole Mio restaurant in Stony Brook (in the shopping center, next to the AMC movie theater). Winners will feast on their sumptuous appetizers, pasta, an entree of their choice, wine or other beverages, and dessert, enjoy great company, and celebrate a new year. The date will be Fri., Jan. 29, 2027 (storm date Feb. 9). Max. 9 winners, opening bid $30.

EV12 – Cinco de Mayo at the Gales

Celebrate Mexico's victory over French forces at the Battle of Puebla in 1862. Join Deborah and Perry Gale on Sat., May 1, 2027, at 4:00 p.m. at their Medford home, where you'll munch on some taco chips and salsa, share a sangria toast, and dine on some mouthwatering fajitas. After dinner, see how creative (or competitive) you can get and play a rousing game of Balderdash. Max. 8 winners, opening bid $25.

EV13 – Karaoke on the Harbor #1

John Seppala will host a karaoke night at his home on Strong's Neck in Setauket on April 3, 2027. Come for good tunes to sing in an intimate setting backed by John's karaoke machine, and possibly even a virtuoso performance or two accompanied by John at the piano (make sure you let him know ahead of time if you want to do this). Snacks and soft drinks will be provided, or if you prefer, BYOB (wine or beer). Festivities will run from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. or until we wear out our vocal chords. Max. 10 winners, opening bid $15.

EV14 – Calverton Bikes and Bagels

Ride the 10-mile paved, traffic-free Vietnam Veterans Memorial bike path in Calverton. This mostly flat trail traverses pine forests, a solar farm, a hidden cemetery and other surprises. An optional stop at the nearby Bean and Bagel Cafe is included. Transportation for two bikes and riders is provided. One winner for two riders. Date and time to be mutually arranged. Donated by Larry Mazza. Max. 1 winner, opening bid $25.

EV15 – Choose Your Own Walking Tour

Sign up for any one of these unique walking tours led by our experienced guide, Linda Mikell. You can take up to 10 people in your group. Mutually agreed upon dates, beginning late spring 2027.

- Roosevelt Island - take the sky-high tram to this East River Island. You might remember that Linda's persona for the 1890s Fair was the reporter, Nellie Bly. Nellie had herself committed to the insane asylum that was on the island in 1897. We will see the existing octagonal building that was part of the asylum, plus ruins of other hospitals. Brand new on the island is a magnificent memorial to Bly, encompassing all the women she helped during her life. Plus we'll see the Four Freedoms monument park dedicated to FDR. The views are amazing and the island is a little paradise unto itself. A FREE bus takes us around the island.

- Financial District - the oldest part of the city. Why it is called "Wall Street"; see remains of a bombing from 1920, views of the East River from a secret garden, and much more. We could eat at Fraunces Tavern, where George Washington said farewell to his troops during the Revolutionary War. A FREE sunset ride on the Staten Island Ferry could be arranged.
- Madison Square Park - (not Madison Square Garden), so much history and memorable architecture, near the Flatiron Building. Every building tells a story. The park is lovely. The arm of the Statue of Liberty was put here before it was built out in the harbor. Eataly is nearby if you're interested in walking through.
- 42nd Street Tour - From the theater district to the East River. We call it our Superlative Tour, the best, the biggest, the first, all on this street! Hear the BEAT?? We start at the Crossroads of the World: 7th Ave. and 42nd St. It's the beginning of the Lincoln Highway. We'll saunter through Bryant Park and see new buildings that are so "green" they put cleaner air back into the atmosphere. We end in Tudor Village overlooking the UN building.
- Greenwich Village - We'll explore some hidden lanes and two hidden gardens, Washington Square Park and the hanging tree, a historic library in a castle, the Stonewall Inn and many other places of interest. Greenwich Village is a delight.
- The African Burial Ground Tour - The newest tour. We will go inside the museum for a personal docent-led tour, then go out and walk through the very meaningful memorial. This area was known as the infamous Five Points - the world's most notorious slum. Now it has all our Federal, state and city courts. Our former president was not there for sightseeing.

Max. 5 winners (5 groups of up to 10 people each), opening bid $100.

EV16 – Karaoke on the Harbor #2

John Seppala will host a karaoke night at his home on Strong's Neck in Setauket on May 8, 2027. Come for good tunes to sing in an intimate setting backed by John's karaoke machine, and possibly even a virtuoso performance or two accompanied by John at the piano (make sure you let him know ahead of time if you want to do this). Snacks and soft drinks will be provided, or if you prefer, BYOB (wine or beer). Festivities will run from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. or until we wear out our vocal chords. Max. 10 winners, opening bid $15.

EV17 – Dance the Night Away

Remember the music of the 70's - the songs that got you out on the dance floor and the slower ones that made you want to sway with someone special? Well, here's your chance to hear some of that music again—and maybe even show us that you still remember the moves! The WoW (Widows or Widowers) group invites you to Dance the Night Away! Come join us for an evening of music, dancing, memories, and good company. And since it's April 16, you can also celebrate the fact that you got your taxes done in the nick of time! Fri., April 16, 2027, 7:00–10:00 p.m. at UUFSB. Unlimited winners, Fixed Price $20.

EV18 – Beatles' Singalong and Pizza Party

The event will start at 1:00 p.m. on Sat., Mar. 6, 2027. Donated by Janet Kazes-Garrison. Max. 12 winners, opening bid $25.

EV22– Birds of a Feather: Needle Felting a Cardinal

Come and join a beginner friendly workshop where you'll learn how to bring a little bird to life with wool! Needle felting is a craft where barbed needles are repeatedly poked into sheep's wool to snag the wool fibers and interlock them, transforming them into firm, sculpted 3D objects. The method Deb will demonstrate involves wrapping the wool around a wire shape prior to needle felting, which saves time and makes it easy to create a charming and realistic 3D bird from scratch in just one sitting. No experience required. Sat., Feb. 13, 2027, at 11:00 a.m. in the UUFSB sanctuary. Donated by Deb Genetin Tate. Max. 10 winners, opening bid $15.

EV23 – Gingerbread House Workshop
